Pastor: What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? Can faith save him?

People: Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

Pastor: Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

People: Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

Pastor: But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

People: Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

Pastor: Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

People: And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

Pastor: Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

ALL: For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.
